

Daniel Whitstine's Letter of Remembrance

Life has its own way of letting people cross paths with one another and I must say from my own experience that meeting Coach (Eric Gulbranson) has made a strong impact on my own life as well as others. A man ~~and~~ with great dignity and the most selfless spirit I've ever encountered. Why God takes the greatest people in our lives, we'll never know, but we do know he'll be missed by all rather free or bound, it never mattered to our beloved brother, (Coach) who saw love and second chances in all. Our hearts goes out to his family and in Coach's eyes, we will one day be living forever together.

Daniel Whitstine